

Life science research commercialisation – the Finnish experience.

Steve Myint, M.D., Ph.D.

Chairman, Board of Directors, Plexpress
Managing Director of Moewin Associates

Abstract

Finland has a nascent life science industry and has many parallels with Singapore. Over the last 6 years much effort has been dedicated to commercialising life sciences. Success has been slow but definite. Some of the learnings will be discussed.